

FORT SMITH TO BE DRY

Legal Proceedings Fail To Obtain Help For Saloonists

Fort Smith, Ark., July 31.—Midnight tonight marks the passing of the saloons and other liquor establishments in Fort Smith. Court proceedings instituted in behalf of the saloon interests failed to act as a stay until the matter could be carried to the highest court. In consequence, the "dry" era will be inaugurated tomorrow and it is doubtful if any attempt will be made to obtain liquor licenses until next year. The most of the dealers are prepared to close having disposed of their stock at "special sale prices" after the ruling of the court that they must quit business. About fifty saloons and wholesale houses are affected.

BOY TAKEN TO REFORM SCHOOL

Elbert Mace who was brought to the county jail from Monett, on a charge of burglary and larceny and to which he pleaded guilty, and receive a sentence to the State Reform School at Booneville, was taken to that place Sunday night by Deputy Sheriff Pearl, where he will remain until he is 21 years old. He is now 15 years old. He had been attempting to dig out of jail and told the prisoners in jail that he was going to get away, when they started with him, is the reason the sheriff put handcuffs on him.—Cassville Democrat.
